On August 25, 2016, BPA Garza was conducting vehicle traffic observations on Highway 281 near San Manuel, Texas. At approximately 5:40 a.m., Falfurrias off duty agents heading to work relayed that they had observed a black Chevrolet pickup truck with different decals on the rear window, with fish decal being the most noticeable, dropping off several individuals north of the county line on Highway 281.

Aerostat received the same information and panned the area making visual contact of the black Chevrolet dropping off the bodies and making a U-turn on a crossover to continue southbound on Highway 281. Approximately several minutes later, BPA Garza observed a black Chevrolet pickup truck matching the description of the drop off vehicle heading south on Hwy 281 north of San Manuel, Texas.

BPA Garza conducted a traffic stop at approximately 5:43 a.m. with two other border patrol units as backup. The black Chevrolet came to stop near the church at San Manuel, BPA Garza exited his patrol vehicle to make contact with the driver of the black Chevrolet, it then sped off continuing south on Highway 281. SBPA Valdez took over lead pursuit followed by the third backup patrol unit driven by BPA Lopez. The black Chevrolet pickup continued south on Highway 281 for about half a mile. SBPA Valdez called out via the Service radio that the driver was bailing out at 05:45 a.m.

The driver, later identified as SOLANO-Fajardo, Sacramento pulled off the road and bailed out near El Rucio Road and Highway 281. SBPA Valdez was the first patrol unit followed by BPA Lopez to arrive at the bailout. The driver ran from the Chevrolet pickup to the nearby high game fence and tried to climb over it. BPA Lopez and BPA Quintero ran towards the subject and got him off the fence. As SBPA Valdez secured the black Chevrolet pickup, BPA Lopez, Quintero, and Garza secured the subject.

Solano admitted to dropping off bodies and Agents observed fresh footprints and trash, indicative of a load vehicle. Solano was transported to the Weslaco Border Patrol Station for processing.

Falfurrias agents were aware of the drop off location and with the assistance of Aerostat 3 cameras, were able to apprehend ten subjects in the area. All the subjects were found to be illegally in the United States. They were placed under arrest and read their Miranda Rights.

Solano and the undocumented aliens were transported to the Weslaco Border Patrol Station for Processing.
